France - Whites & Rosés

Cave de Turckheim	Reserve Pinot Blanc	2006	Alsace	£	8.29
The excellent cave at Turckheim produce Alsace wines in the classic style. This exotically fruity pinot blanc would be a great match to a Thai dish.
Cave de Turckheim	Reserve Gewürztraminer	2007	Alsace	£	10.49
Exotic flavours of lychee, honeysuckle and a touch of toasty oak. The spicy notes on the mid palate are exceptional and the finish hangs around forever.
Cave de Turckheim	Reserve Riesling	2007	Alsace	£	8.79
Classic limey white from this hughley popular co-operative in Alsace. Fresh, vibrant and minerally intense fruit oozes from this excellent wine. Great with Oriental food.
Cave de Turckheim	Reserve Pinot Gris	2006	Alsace	£	9.99
A superb example of the Pinot Gris grape from this great Alsace Co-operative. Honeyed yet mineral, this excellent wine is fresh and vibrant with notes of ripe apples.
Cave de Turckheim	Grand Cru Brand Gewürztraminer	2006	Alsace	£	15.99
A heady bouquet of exotic fruit and a rich oily body to match. The mouthfeel on this Gewürztraminer is so good. The finish is long, dry and complex.
Domaine de la Galopiere	Bourgogne Blanc	2005	Burgundy	£	11.99
Chardonnay as it was always meant to be: ripe, seductive apple fruit over a blanket of subtle vanilla with a complexity and length of finish that really impresses.
Jean-Claude Boisset	Bourgogne Blanc	2006	Burgundy	£	10.99
With Gregory Patriat at the winemaking helm this well respected producer keeps going from strength to strength, an elegant ripe example of good white Burgundy
Domaine Bernard Defaix	Chablis	2007	Burgundy	£	13.49
Dry minerally fruit with a lovely cut of acidity running through the middle. The wines have a more modern style since Bernard's sons have taken over.
Domaine de la Motte	Chablis 1er Cru Vauligneau	2007	Burgundy	£	14.99
An intensely mineral Chablis that's a million miles from the over-oaked Australian Chardonnays that are so ubiquitous to so many retailers shelves. A well-priced premier cru.
Jaffelin	Macon Peronne	2006	Burgundy	£	10.99
Full, ripe acacia honey notes mingle with some exotic tinges of oak. The weight in the mouth is wonderful with a full orchestra of fruit flavours on the tongue.
Jean-Claude Boisset	Bourgogne Hautes-Côtes de Nuits Blanc	2005	Burgundy	£	14.99
A wine not often seen, but when tasted you will see why we picked it to go on our shelves. Controlled usage of oak brings out the splendour of the Chardonnay grape.
Domaine de Fussiacus	Pouilly Fuisse	2007	Burgundy	£	18.59
An extremely well-crafted Chardonnay from the Maconnais district of Burgundy. Slightly floral, ripe apple notes on the nose lead to a rich, full-flavoured, structured palate.
Domaine Latour-Giraud	Meursault	2005	Burgundy	£	22.99
Ripe apple fruit lies on a blanket of seductive vanilla combining with a tight structure and a complex mineral character. An amazing wine.
Jean-Claude Boisset	Monthelie Blanc	2006	Burgundy	£	18.99
A chardonnay that is full of fat, ripe fruit yet the skill of the winemaker has stopped it from being over blown. The gentle oaking gives a sensual feel in the mouth.
Domaine Fiunicicoli	Corse Sartene	2007	Corsica	£	11.99
An interesting but stunning white from Corsica. Those famous grapes Nielluccio, Sciaccarello & Vermentino produce aromatic flavours of grapefruit and lemon.
La Croix Gratiot	Picpoul de Pinet	2008	Languedoc	£	6.99
This lesser-known Southern French white is starting to attract more attention. Fresh, vibrant, nutty citric fruit with a beautiful crispness.
Domaine de Villargeau	Coteaux du Ciennois	2008	Loire	£	9.99
Pure Sauvignon in the perfect image of a top-notch Pouilly Fume in every way besides the price tag. Crisp, fresh and oh-so elegant minerality marries with refreshing gooseberry fruit.
Domaine de Bel-Air	Pouilly Fume	2007	Loire	£	12.59
This top-notch Pouilly Fume really impressed us. Classic Sauvignon Blanc varietal notes of grass and mineral infused gooseberry fruit combine with the merest hint of gun smoke.

Domaine La Gemiere	Sancerre	2007	Loire	£	12.49
Possibly the finest Sancerre we've ever tasted; this is absolutely classic in style: An elegant, soft Sauvignon that has a rich and mineral quality.
Les Coteaux Tuffiers	Vouvray Demi-Sec	2007	Loire	£	7.79
Classical Chenin Blanc from the Loire Valley. This easy to enjoy wine demonstrates copious ripe apple fruit with a seductive level of residual sugar. Exceptional value.
Cave de Tain l'Hermitage	Crozes Hermitage Blanc	2007	Rhone	£	12.59
A wine that you don't see much of over here, but is always worth tracking down. This oily, nutty and rich Crozes Hermitage Blanc is produced from 100% Marsanne.
Paul Jaboulet	Cotes du Rhone	2007	Rhone	£	8.49
An intriguing mix of grapes that creates a wine which has a creamy palate and flavours of nectarine and apricot. Dry with a long finish. For those who are looking for a change.
Marquis de Salses	Viognier	2006	Vin de Pays	£	6.79
Produced using the renowned skill of New Zealand winemaker Matt Thompson, this pure Viognier has a vibrant colour, a white peach character on the nose and lovely depth and balance.
Le Saint-Lannes	Cotes de Gascogne	2007	Vin de Pays	£	6.59
A dry and refreshingly crisp white, with ample notes of clean citrus and passion fruit. Produced using a blend of local Colombard, Gros Manseng and Ugni Blanc. Exceptional value for money.
La Croix Gratiot	Roussanne	2007	Vin de Pays	£	7.49
A beautiful example of a single varietal Roussanne from the South of France. Hints of stone fruit give way to a full yet lively and minerally fruit on the palate.
Domaine Bergon	Grenache Rosé	2007	Vin de Pays	£	5.99
The ideal rose quaffer for drinking throughout the warmer months. This gorgeous pink is incredibly easy-drinking and exudes gluggable strawberry and raspberry fruits.
Domaine de Villargeau	Coteaux du Giennois Rosé	2008	Loire	£	9.99
The Coteaux du Giennois is a small wine growing region in the Loire Valley to the North of Sancerre and Pouilly Fume. This pure Pinot Noir rose has a nose of rose petals leading to a palate of soft sur
Jean-Max Roger	Sancerre Rosé	2007	Loire	£	13.49
Light, elegant Pinot fruit with hints of redcurrants that follows through on to the palate. Light and refreshing; a great partner to any fish dish.
Domaine Finnicicoli	Corse Sartene rosé	2007	Corsica	£	11.99
We were blown away by this stunning rose from Corsica. This complex wine is floral and mineral with beautiful characters of ripe summer fruits whilst maintaining a good level of balanced acidity.

France - Reds

Ch. Lauduc	Classic	2006	Bordeaux	£	6.99
Classical Claret at an unbeatable price. The 75% Merlot gives amazing softness and quaffable plum fruit, given structure and weight from the 25% Cabernet Sauvignon.
Ch. Lauduc	Prestige	2005	Bordeaux	£	9.99
An exceptionally good Claret at a great price. An even blend of Merlot and Cabernet Sauvignon matured in a combination of new and old oak. This wine has a lot of finesse.
Château Pontoise Cabarrus	Haut-Medoc	2003	Bordeaux	£	14.49
Cabernet sauvignon dominates the blend with merlot giving it some suppleness. The long hot vintage produced wines with lots of up front fruit.
Château Saransot-Dupre	Listrac-Medoc	2004	Bordeaux	£	14.99
A wine of good structure and balanced fruit. The use of Cabernet Franc in the blend really shines through. The oak is well balanced and the finish is long.
Château La Ganne	Pomerol	2006	Bordeaux	£	19.99
Silky smooth Merlot fruit is held together by a splash of Cabernet franc. Medium bodied with very fine tannins, This wine can be enjoyed now but will develop nicely over time.
Château Cassagne Haut-Canon	Canon-Fronsac	2004	Bordeaux	£	12.99
The lesser-known region of Canon-Fronsac is capable of producing elegant gems like this, just like its more illustrious St. Emilion neighbours. Plummy and rich with a hint of cedar.
Château Mouras	Graves	2005	Bordeaux	£	13.99
Classic Graves at an outstanding price. Rich blackcurrant and cedar harmonize beautifully. Ideal Winter drinking.

Château de Garraud	Lalande-de-Pomerol	2004	Bordeaux	£	16.99
The wines of Lalande offer some of the best value to be found in the whole of Bordeaux. Lots of ripe fruit, some delicious tannins and a long finish.
Château Les Laudes	St. Emilion Grand Cru	2003	Bordeaux	£	19.99
A more full-bodied style of St.Emilion. Velvety soft tannins hold together the dark blackberry fruit. A gem of a Claret.
Château de Ferrand	St. Emilion Grand Cru	1998	Bordeaux	£	19.99
One of the most celebrated Chateau in the St. Emilion Appellation. Merlot provides silky plum fruit with a good dose of Cabernet cassis. This 1998 vintage is now drinking absolutely perfectly.
Chateau Langoa-Barton	St. Julien	2001	Bordeaux	£	49.99
Now at perfect maturity, this great, great wine deserves all the praise thrown at it. Rich, cedary cassis fruit with a firm yet mellow structure. A true gem.
Domaine de la Galopière	Bourgogne Rouge	2007	Burgundy	£	13.99
We were amazed by the quality of fruit and delicate integration of subtle toasty oak from this fantastic Pinot Noir. Probably the best value-for-money Burgundy we've ever come across.
Jean-Claude Boisset	Bourgogne Rouge	2006	Burgundy	£	10.99
An excellent Pinot Noir, which has a lovely colour and forward black cherry perfume. Light and soft on the palate with a gentle, long finish.
Domaine Jean Marechal	Mercurey Premier Cru	2004	Burgundy	£	16.99
Exceptional quality of fruit from this excellent grower. 100% premier cru Pinot makes this a truly sublime Burgundy. Mercurey always produces some of the best value Burgundies.
Domaine Laurent Gauthier	Morgon	2006	Burgundy	£	8.49
Light cherry fruit with a supple backbone which runs through the mid palate. This Morgon has charm and a lot of character and offers superb value for money.
Domaine de la Galopière	Pommard	2002	Burgundy	£	26.99
A complex nose of delicate forward summer fruit over a very subtle and integrated layer of oak. The quality of fruit reflects the top weather conditions of the 2002 vintage.
Domaine de la Galopière	Aloxe-Corton	2004	Burgundy	£	18.99
Fantastic Pinot from this excellent grower. Velvety soft strawberry and raspberry fruit in a very forward style with an impressively long length of finish.
Domaine de Gry-Sablon	Fleurie	2007	Burgundy	£	12.49
This Fleurie is brimming with exuberant fruit, its floral aromas mingling with hints of blackberries and cassis that follow through to a fine rounded palate.
Château de Pierreux	Brouilly	2007	Burgundy	£	11.99
Scents of violets and ripe Autumn fruits. On the palate flavours of blueberry jam. This wine is delicious - a real showcase of what can be done with the Gamay grape.
Domaine Heresztyn	Gevrey Chambertin	2004	Burgundy	£	26.99
A well-priced Gevrey from this fantastic producer. Seductive strawberry and raspberry fruit interlaced with a toasty mineral complexity makes this a truly outstanding wine.
Jean-Claude Boisset	Nuits-Saint-Georges	2006	Burgundy	£	32.99
One of Burgundy's top appellations from one of its top producers. Classic Pinot as it should be, ripe fruit over a blanket of delicate oak. A complex palate with a long finish.
Domaine des Pasquiers	Côtes du Rhone-Villages Sablet	2006	Rhone	£	9.49
A côtes du Rhone of the very highest order. Concentrated rich, spicy black fruit with a firm structure and a finish on the palate that really stays with you.
Domaine des Pers	Châteauneuf du Pape	2005	Rhone	£	19.99
A classic big and broody Châteauneuf from the Southern Rhone. Full-on spicy, peppery damson and plum fruit can't avoid putting a smile on your face.
Clos du Joncuas	Gigondas	2004	Rhone	£	19.99
We were very impressed by this classic wine from the Southern Rhone. A complex assembly of the traditional varieties of the South, this top notch red oozes spicy damson & plum.
Paul Jaboulet	Hermitage	2004	Rhone	£	35.99
This celebrated wine deserves all the praise it receives and is worth every penny. 100% Syrah, this is a big spicy mouthful with a luxuriously soft and silky structure & a warm finish.
Paul Jaboulet	Cotes du Ventoux	2006	Rhone	£	7.99
A heady combination of ripe, sweet blackberry fruit and supple, dusty tannins produces a wine that punches well above its weight. Great value.

Paul Jaboulet	St. Joseph	2005	Rhone	£	13.59
Made with 100% Syrah this wine is medium-bodied with subtle tannins. The fruit is vibrant with characteristic black pepper spice. The perfect partner for a casserole or lamb.
Coudoulet de Beaucastel	Cotes du Rhone	2006	Rhone	£	15.99
Lovingly created using grapes from the vineyards of world-renowned Chateauneuf-du-Pape producers Chateau de Beaucastel. A full-bodied, spicy gem with complex peppery raspberry fruit. A true ge
Domaine Brial	Cotes du Roussillon	2006	Roussillon	£	5.59
The South of France still produces some of the best value wines around. This classy red from the Roussillon is a delightful blend of Carignan, Syrah, Grenache and Mourvedre.
La Croix Gratiot	Carignan	2007	Vin de Pays	£	6.59
This cardigan has an attractive and vibrant colour that gives way to raspberryish fruit on the nose and a lively yet supple fruit on the palate. A great example of modern French wine.
Les Vignes de l'Eglise	Grenache Merlot	2007	Vin de Pays	£	5.99
A fresh, yet ripe and well-rounded red from the South of France. Unoaked to retain the pure quality of the grapes from which it is made, this modern red is indisputably easy to drink.
Italy - Whites
Gran Sasso	Pecorino	2007	Abruzzo	£	9.99
A vibrant, tropical fruit-led white from Abruzzo. Dry in style, this elegant, refreshing yet dry Italian can't help but please.
Vesevo	Greco di Tufo	2007	Campania	£	10.99
Aromatic with a hint of white stone fruit on the nose and an almost Viognier-like character on the palate. Clean, fresh and unoaked.
Vesevo	Sannio Falanghina	2007	Campania	£	9.29
This fascinating white from Campania has an intense floral fragrance of white flowers and gardenia. Fruity on the palate with white melon and mineral notes. Medium-bodied, soft and very well-balance
Livio Felluga	Sharjs	2007	Friuli	£	15.99
A blend of Chardonnay and barrel fermented Ribolla Gialla has a delicate perfume of white peaches that gives away to rich yet elegant fruit on the palate.
Monte Schiavo	Verdicchio	2008	Marche	£	7.79
A crisp and citrus fresh Verdicchio that's bursting with vibrant mineral lemon fruit with a long-lasting and extremely refreshing finish.
Monte Schiavo	Verdicchio 'Nativo'	2004	Marche	£	9.99
The bouquet of this great white is a symphony of tropical fruits: pineapple and mango with a definite whiff of passion fruit. The tropical fruit flavours come to life in the mouth.
La Giustiniana	Gavi di Gavi 'Vigneti Lugarara'	2007	Piemonte	£	13.59
Outstanding Gavi of remarkable character and originality. The sandy soils offer a more open wine with positive fruit and soft acidity.
La Giustiniana	Gavi di Gavi 'Montessoro'	2007	Piemonte	£	18.99
This is a mile stone for Gavi. Never before has a wine from the Cortese grape tasted so good. Clean rich and scented with great depth and texture on the palate.
A Mano	Fiano Greco	2008	Puglia	£	7.99
A great fresh, crisp and aromatic white from Puglia, this is an interesting blend of local grapes. The Fiano gives the wine a peachy citrus character and the Greco adds body and structure.
Villa Tonino	Inzolia	2008	Sicily	£	6.49
This is such a fun wine; lots of honey blossom on the nose and sensual fruit it is a wonder why this Sicilian grape hasn't made much of a splash. Enjoy the secret while it lasts.
Feudo Montoni	Grillo	2007	Sicily	£	9.99
A truly great wine from Sicily. The aromatics on this wine are remarkable. Crisp, dry, mineral and very fresh. It's amazing the indigenous Grillo grape doesn't get about more.
Franz Haas	Pinot Bianco	2006	Trentino	£	10.99
We are constantly amazed by the great wines of Franz Haas. This Pinot Bianco is fresh and dry yet beautifully elegant and aromatic.
Franz Haas	Pinot Grigio	2007	Trentino	£	10.99
Pear and lychee aromas lift the senses and make you remember that, when treated with care Pinot Grigio is capable of making excellent wine. Franz Haas makes the best.

Cantine Baroncini	Vernaccia di San Gimignano	2007	Tuscany	£	7.79
A fresh and nutty, mineral and weighty Vernaccia that perfectly demonstrates why these wines are so highly sought after. Fantastic value for money Tuscan white.
Corte Giara	Pinot Grigio	2008	Veneto	£	6.99
Light with plenty of enjoyable fruit flavours. A nice balance of acidity that finishes it off nicely.

Produced solely from ripe Garganega grapes grown in the hills just outside Verona, this excellent value for money wine is juicy, aromatic and extremely easy-drinking.
Ca' del Frati	Lugana	2008	Veneto	£	11.99
Made solely from the Lugana grape. The richness of the fruit is balanced by good acidity and a wonderful aromatic character. These Italian native varieties are just superb.
Tommasi	Soave Classico	2007	Veneto	£	8.99
Flavours of ripe nectarines and white peach with a deft touch of acidity. Surely Soave shouldn't taste this good. The Tomassi family make very good wines indeed.
Alpha Zeta	Rosato	2008	Veneto	£	5.99
A great new addition to our shelves. Produced from predominantly Corvina grapes, this great rosato is fresh and juicy with ripe cherry and strawberry fruit.
Italy - Reds
Gran Sasso	Montepulciano	2008	Abruzzo	£	6.99
A weightier more structured style of Montepulciano that still oozes classic ripe strawberry fruit
Vesevo	Beneventano Aglianico IGT	2006	Campania	£	9.49
Aglianico is one of Italy's finest grape varieties. Until now it hasn't been treated with the respect it deserves. A beautiful glass of wine with soft and supple tannins.
Varja	Dolcetto d'Alba	2007	Piemonte	£	13.99
100% Dolcetto. No added Syrah or Cabernet to bolster the flavours. Aldo Varja just lets his perfect Dolcetto grapes speak for themselves.
Massolino	Barolo	2004	Piemonte	£	32.99
This vintage is remarkably accessible now. The perfume is heady. The tannins are firm yet well integrated and the fruit is supple and rich.
Cascina Adelaide	Nebbiolo	2006	Piemonte	£	16.99
This is a great example of the Nebbiolo grape in all its glory. Brick red in colour, with an amazing bouquet. Being un-oaked lets the fruit shine through, and deliver some great flavours
Cascina Adelaide	Barbera d'Alba	2004	Piemonte	£	15.99
The state of the art winery at Casina Adelaide helps to produce some of the cleanest and freshest Italian wines on the market. The fruit in this Barbera is outstanding.

Grapes blended from a cool region and a warmer vineyard find harmony in this great value for money wine which offers attractive, interesting drinking at an affordable price.
Cesconi	Moratel Rosso	2004	Trentino	£	13.99
A well made blend of Merlot, Cabernet Sauvignon and Teroldego from the Alto Adige. It is a wine of great depth and flavour with an attractive fruitiness.
Franz Haas	Pinot Nero	2005	Trentino	£	17.99
Lovely uplifting aromatics and wonderful depth of flavour a fairly light style of Pinot but none the less it provides excellent drinking. Franz Haas rules!
Poggiotondo	Chianti	2007	Tuscany	£	8.29
A beautiful estate set in 50 hectares of rolling Tuscan Hills. Made from 100% Sangiovese it has a deep colour a ripe plummy nose and a fleshy palate.
Tenuta di Capezzana	Barco Reale di Carmignano	2006	Tuscany	£	10.99
Bright and bouncy fruit in a gulpable style. Tenuta di Capezzana's wines just keep getting better and better.

Tenuta Fontodi	Chianti Classico	2006	Tuscany	£	17.99
A wine that sums up everything great Chianti is about. They should show off the impressive terroir of the region and this one is superb.
Avignonesi	Vino Nobile di Montepulciano	2005	Tuscany	£	17.49
This has a good intensity of spicy fruit on the palate with wonderful balance, depth and subtle tannins. This is truly one of the great wines of the region.
Uccelliera	Rosso di Montalcino	2006	Tuscany	£	19.99
Uccelliera (birdcage) is situated in the Southern corner of Montalcino. Andrea Corternises vines produce wine that truly reflects the terroir of this famous region.
Uccelliera	Rapace	2005	Tuscany	£	28.99
This "Super Tuscan" is a sheer delight. Meticulously crafted from the finest Sangiovese and Merlot grapes to produce a wine of outstanding depth, flavour and complexity.
Tenuta Fontodi	Chianti Classico Riserva	2004	Tuscany	£	32.99
As seen in every wine column this year. The darling of all the wine writers. It truly is a stunning wine and one of our favourites too.
Conti Costanti	Brunello di Montalcino	2003	Tuscany	£	36.99
Andrea Costanti's estate is in the cooler part of the Montalcino zone, which leads to greater elegance in his wines than others in the region.
Latium	Valpolicella	2007	Veneto	£	9.99
Valpolicella at its best. Bright and bouncy fruit with that unique cherry fruit that only this wine can produce. This works really well with tomato, pasta dishes.
Alpha Zeta	Valpolicella Ripasso	2006	Veneto	£	9.49
Partially dried Corvina grapes are blended with Rondinella and Mollinara grapes to create the Ripasso style. Rich and full with a hint of sweetness in the mid palate.
Alpha Zeta	Amarone	2005	Veneto	£	24.99
Almost Port-like in its brooding intensity, but has a lot more subtlety and elegance. The king of wines from the Veneto.

Spain - Whites & Rosés

Bodegas La Val	Orballo Albarino	2007	Rías Baixas	£	9.99
On tasting this wine it's easy to see why Albarino reigns supreme as Spain's number one white grape variety. Seductive, rich, complex and silky. Top notch Spanish white.
Bodegas Luis Canas	Rioja Blanco	2007	Rioja	£	8.69
We were extremely impressed with the wines of Luis Canas, including this delightful, fresh yet elegant white Rioja enhanced by a little toasty oak.
Alvarez Y Diez	Monte Alina Verdejo Viura	2007	Rueda	£	7.99
Sherbety with a good spritz. The tangy Verdejo grape produces wines with flavours of pink grapefruit and citrus. A refreshing drop.
Alvarez Y Diez	Mantel Blanco Verdejo Sauvignon	2007	Rueda	£	9.59
An herbaceous, citrus blend that gets the taste buds tingleing. This spritzzy wine is a great aperitif or try it with some asparagus.
Bodegas Laus	Gewurztraminer	2007	Somontano	£	13.79
Not a grape variety commonly associated with Spain, but this new winery in the Northern, cool climate Somontano has succeeded in creating an exceptional example.
Covitoro	Marques de la Villa Malvasia	2008	Toro	£	6.29
A fresh, rounded dry white wine with tropical aromas of peach and nectarine all balanced with crisp acidity.
Bodegas Anadas	Cave Rosado	2007	Carinena	£	7.99
This modern Rosado blend of Cabernet Sauvignon and Tempranillo is a real gem – summer fruits are offered on the initial palate with a spicy complexity arising in abundance on the finish.
Bodegas Artesa	Rioja Rosado	2007	Rioja	£	6.49
This excellent Rosado Rioja has a youthful, very fruity and pronounced nose of fresh summer fruits with an equally juicy palate. Good acidity and structure holds the palate perfectly.
Bodegas Laus	Flor de Merlot	2006	Somontano	£	9.39
Stunning rosé from the increasingly popular Somontano region. Full of lovely ripe, sweet plum, damson and cherry notes. Pure, clean and very fresh.

Spain - Reds

Bodegas Aragonesas	Coto de Hayas Reserva	2003	Campo de Borja	£	10.99
We were extremely impressed by this turbo-charged Spanish red produced from 100% Garnacha. Rich spicy berry fruit marries well with the opulent vanilla.
Bodegas Aragonesas	Coto de Hayas Fagus	2006	Campo de Borja	£	21.59
The flagship of the Coto de Hayas range, this pure Garnacha has been given the most tender care and attention to produce this rich, concentrated, spicy raspberry fruited dream.
Bodegas Anadas	Care Crianza	2005	Carinena	£	9.89
A delicious blend of spicy fruit from the Carinena region. The Cabernet gives the blend structure while the Garnacha adds warmth. The Merlot adds a touch of class at the end.
Bodega Mustiguillo	Mestizaje	2007	El Terrerazo	£	11.99
The lesser known variety Bobal is capable of producing amazing wines of which this is a perfect example. Seductive, complex rich dark fruit with a spicy chocolate finish.
Buil & Gine	Baboix	2004	Montsant	£	16.99
Full-bodied with lots of soft, spicy fruit with hints of mocha and cocoa. Another delicious wine by the ever impressive Xavi Gine. This time from his vineyards in Montsant.
Buil & Gine	Gine Gine Priorat	2006	Priorat	£	13.59
Yes, we double-checked the price too; to get a good Priorat for this price is unheard of. Powerful bramble and black fruit flavours and mellow tannins seduce the palate.
Buil & Gine	Joan Gine Gine Priorat	2003	Priorat	£	19.99
Priorat has made an extremely impressive name for itself and when you taste wines like this you can understand. A seductive bombardment of spicy bramble fruit.
Cillar de Silos	Curato Tinto	2007	Ribera del Duero	£	9.99
Any among you who believe Rioja to be the only decent Spanish wine producing region really need to try this spicy vanilla seduction in a bottle.
Bodegas Luis Canas	Rioja Crianza	2005	Rioja	£	9.99
A subtly oaked Rioja from excellent producer Bodegas Luis Canas – soft blackberry fruit and spice combine with silky tannins and a long finish.
Bodegas Luis Canas	Rioja Reserva Selección de la Familia	2002	Rioja	£	17.99
Lots of punchy fruit which balances well with some very pleasant integrated oak. As with their other wines a backbone of exotic spice runs through the main palate.
Bodegas Remelluri	Rioja Reserva	2003	Rioja	£	20.99
A more traditional style of Rioja with earthier, gamey blackberry fruit. Classic use of toasty oak. A Rioja for the purest.
Bodegas Luis Canas	Rioja Reserva Especial Amaren	2002	Rioja	£	29.99
New wave style of Rioja, lots more clean fruit than you would normally associate with wines from this region. Silky smooth tannins and elegant use of fresh oak.
Bodegas Remelluri	Rioja Gran Reserva	1999	Rioja	£	39.99
Full bodied savoury fruit is the hallmark of Remelluri. This Gran Reserva will not disappoint enthusiasts of this style of Rioja. This is a true expression of Spanish terroir.
Bodegas Luis Canas	Hiru 3 Racimos	2005	Rioja	£	74.99
Massive concentration of bramble and mulberry fruit, fresh oak and a finish that is ever lasting. This is the peak of the new wave Rioja movement.
Abadía Retuerta	Rivola	2006	Saron de Duero	£	12.49
A heady blend of native Tempranillo and Cabernet Sauvignon. An elegant wine from the cool Saron de Duero region made by one of Spain's most sought after producers.
Bodegas Laus	Tinto Crianza	2003	Somontano	£	11.49
This smart new winery in up and coming Somontano really impressed us with the quality of their fruit. This is one of the purest examples of Tempranillo we have ever tasted.
Alvarez Y Diez	Valmoro Toro Crianza	2005	Toro	£	12.49
One of the most enjoyable Spanish reds I have tasted in along time. A beautiful Bouquet and a big mouthful of sweet, juicy fruit.
Sequiot	Tempranillo Cabernet Sauvignon	2007	Valencia	£	6.49
An enjoyable easy drinking red produced from Spain's number one grape variety. Unoaked, bright juicy fruit and silky smooth tannins.

Weigartner Wachau Riesling Exceptional 2002 Wachau £ 19.99
 Superb Riesling with all the classic citrus/petroleum notes that only this great grape variety can produce. A beautifully crafted wine with a long elegant finish.

Austria - Reds

Familie Prieler Blaufrankisch Johanneshöhe 2006 Burgenland £ 12.99
 A bouquet reminiscent of right bank Bordeaux with aromas of freshly squeezed blackcurrants. The palate is medium bodied with nice touches of gamey fruit and traces of well placed oak.

Weingut Pittnauer Pinot Noir 2006 Burgenland £ 18.49
 Great concentration and a lovely balance of silky tannins and savoury fruit. This is a star wine. Taste it blind and you would be taken to the heart of Burgundy. The reality though is Burgenland.

Hungary

Dobogo Furmint 2006 Mad £ 14.99
 I can't quite get my head around this great wine. It has remarkable aromatics. The palate is as exotic as anything I have ever tasted and the finish stays forever. Still don't get it though.

The Lebanon - Whites & Rosés

Château Musar White 2001 Bekka Valley £ 17.99
 Barrel fermented in French oak. A pale gold colour with rich flavours of buttered toast, pine nuts and candied peel. An exceptional drinking experience.

Château Musar Rosé 2006 Bekka Valley £ 15.99
 A very pale rosé with a hint of orange. On the palate it has complex flavours of coffee and cashew nuts. This would go very well with roast duck.

The Lebanon - Reds

---------	----------	------	--------------	---	-------

A classic Cape blend of cabernet, Merlot and a splash of Pinotage. This hand crafted wine oozes class. Soft ripe fruit and very well used oak gives an almost French feel.

Raats	Cabernet Franc	2006	Stellenbosch	£	17.49
-------	----------------	------	--------------	---	-------

About as aromatic a red wine as you will ever get. The waft of violets and vanilla is intoxicating. The body is full with lots of generous fruit. Superb.
